THE KENYA SCHOOL OF LAW

COURSE: REGULATORY IMPACT ASSESSMENT & COMPLIANCE REVIEW (3 LSK CLE POINTS)

DATE: 11–15 March, 2019

VENUE: Naivasha

ABOUT THE COURSE

The Kenya School of Law is pleased to mount a very practical, hands-on 5 day course on REGULATORY IMPACT ASSESSMENT AND COMPLIANCE REVIEW.

Regulatory impact assessment (RIA) involves a range of methods aimed at systematically assessing the negative and positive impacts of proposed and existing regulations. RIA is an important instrument for improving the quality of regulations and good governance, by ensuring more coherent and transparent policies, and making regulation more effective and efficient. Through RIA, an analysis of proposed regulations is done, and by comparing different options, RIA is a methodological framework and an administrative procedure for better-informed policy-making and legislative enactments. RIA facilitates the interdepartmental process and often involves public consultation.

Through the process, RIA ensures that the benefits of government action justify the costs, and that the option chosen maximises benefits and minimises costs. This is why cost-benefit analysis is usually part and parcel of RIA. RIA has been used widely especially in the OECD countries. But the practice has now found its way into many countries, including Kenya, where it has been given legislative impetus. The Statutory Instruments Act requires that RIA be undertaken in certain cases.

INTENDED PARTICIPANTS: The Course is recommended for policy-makers, managers of institutions, legal practitioners; institutions or persons interested in law reform, persons interested in and involved in the research for, advising and guiding in the drafting of policy statements/ documents for private and public entities, especially the Legislatures at National and County levels. The course is a must for institutions that intend to make, or are in the process of making, regulations.

FACULTY: The School has a team of hands-on experts on the regulatory impact assessment to share their knowledge and experience.

CERTIFICATION: Certificates of participation will be issued at the end of the training.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: By the end of the course participant will be expected to:

- a) Apply the provisions of the Statutory Instruments Act to real life situation;
- b) Analyse and interpret the objectives of an Act of Parliament or a statutory instrument;
- c) Assess and review the impact and effect of proposed regulations on the private and public sectors as well as on fundamental rights and freedoms;
- d) Demonstrate an understanding of the options available (policy, legal, administrative, etc.) in lieu of a statutory instrument, which may achieve the objectives for which the instrument is made, and justify the options;
- e) Assess and determine the cost implication, both to the Government and the private sector, should the proposed instrument be adopted;
- f) Assess and determine the benefits that would accrue from a proposed instrument that justify the costs that may arise out of the instrument;
