THE KENYA SCHOOL OF LAW

COURSE: CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND THE LAW (3 CLE POINTS)

DATE: 06 – 10 MAY, 2019

VENUE: MOMBASA

ABOUT THE COURSE

The corporate governance and the law course is designed, developed and delivered by the Kenya School of Law. This course on legal aspects of corporate governance provides a sharp introduction to key legal, strategic and compliance issues of corporate governance. It is ideal for personnel from public and private entities, senior management, corporation secretaries, legal counsel, procurement officers, governance practitioners, auditors and financial officers, amongst others.

The entire corporate governance principles and strategies will be discussed, the principles analysed, the role of the corporation secretary deciphered, risk and corporation supervision and enforcement analyzed, tax implications and the corporate governance regulatory issues explored - all within institutional corporate strategy. Targeted use of real life case studies and presentations by selected experts in the subject will spice up the learning experience. It is expected that those who take this course should leave ready to advise on, or oversee, the various aspects of corporate governance in their institutions.

OBJECTIVES OF THE TRAINING

The general objective of this course is to build capacity of the participant in order for them to effectively contribute to the achievement of their institutions' strategic and business objectives. The training will also provide a platform where the participants will engage directly with experts on the subject and the challenges they face as they steer their institutions on the aspects relevant to their mandates.

At the end of the course, the participant will be expected to be able-

- a) To know their role in the organizational milieu and understand the scope of their responsibilities;
- b) To properly advise their institutions in terms of strategy and good governance parameters;
- c) To be able to effectively handle board secretarial services and institution's commercial transactions;
- d) To demonstrate ability to address challenges the corporation secretaries face in their day to day work and possible mitigating action points;

e) To effectively implement the requirements of the Mwongozo 2015.
