

ATTENTION!!!

CALLOUT FOR THE COPYRIGHTX COURSE

We are delighted to announce an exclusive opportunity for 30 students to participate in the upcoming session of CopyrightX 2024 cohort, a renowned twelve-week networked course offered under the auspices of Harvard Law School and the Berkman Klein Center for Internet and Society. This unique program has been running annually since 2013 and provides a comprehensive exploration of copyright law, its impact on various industries, and the ongoing debates surrounding potential reforms.

About CopyrightX

The CopyrightX course is designed to delve into the current state of copyright law, examining its effects on art, entertainment, and industry. Led by Professor William Fisher III at Harvard Law School, the program utilizes a combination of recorded lectures, assigned readings, weekly seminars and online discussions to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of how the copyright system stimulates and regulates creative expression. The course is offered in various countries and here in Kenya at the Kenya School of Law through CLaw-IT, taught by experts in copyright law.

Why Apply?

- Gain an in-depth understanding of the copyright law.
- An appreciation of how that law affects creativity and innovation,
- Engage in discussions on ongoing copyright debates and reforms.
- Connect with a global community of legal scholars and practitioners.
- Access a diverse range of learning resources and interactive sessions.

- The course is offered free of charge to successful applicants.
- You will receive a certificate upon successful completion of the course

How to Apply:

Send a Letter of Intent to: claw-it@ksl.ac.ke:

- Convincing the selection panel why you should be selected
- Indicating your guarantee to attend all classes and carry out all assignments
- Explaining your past involvement with the CopyrightX course (if any)

Course Details:

- Duration: 2:00-5:00pm every Wednesday for 12 weeks, February to April, 2024
- Application Deadline: 12th February, 2024

This is a rare opportunity to be part of an internationally acclaimed program that bridges the gap between theory and practice in copyright law. Don't miss the chance to enhance your understanding of copyright law and be part of a global community of legal scholars.

Apply now!

For any inquiries or further information, please write to: claw-it@ksl.ac.ke.