About the Kenya School of Law CPD, P& R

The Kenya School of Law (The School) is established under the Kenya School of Law Act, Cap. 16C to “be a public legal education provider responsible for the provision of professional legal training as an agent of the Government”.

The Continuing Professional Development, Projects & Research Department (CPD, P&R) is a specialized unit within the Kenya School of Law (KSL) that focuses on advancing the skills and knowledge of legal professionals and stakeholders in the justice sector.

The Department offers a wide array of training programmes designed to meet the diverse professional needs of the legal sector. These include short courses that typically run for 1 to 5 days as well as advanced courses that run upto 2 weeks. The School delivers both scheduled (calendar-based) and institution-specific training.

OUR MISSION

To offer practical training for the professional development of lawyers and other professionals, and to undertake research and consultancy in the public and private sectors for promotion of the rule of law and good governance.

OUR VISION

A centre of excellence in professional legal training, research and consultancy.
