THE KENYA SCHOOL OF LAW

SUPPLYCHAIN MANAGEMENT: LAW AND PRACTICE.

(ACCREDITED BY LSK FOR CPD POINTS)

THEME: “In pursuit of a winning strategy in public procurement in Kenya”
DATE: 6th TO 10th OCTOBER, 2025
VENUE: KAREN, NAIROBI

COURSE OVERVIEW

There's significant regulatory pressure on procuring entities in Kenya, in recent times, with both local regulatory demands as well as international best practices vital for consideration across your organization's supply chain. These could relate to mandatory E-procurement, strict environmental reporting standards, product safety, or ethical labour practices within your supply chain, amongst other things.

Understanding and addressing any legal issues within your supply chain is vital to ensuring compliance with regulations and developing an effective chain that can operate efficiently and at scale.

This course will help you master the legal, regulatory frameworks and policies that impact organizations every day from contract law, ethical and legal guidelines and industry regulations that govern how your organization acquires goods, works and services to enable you;

- Identify the various risks that exist at the formation stage of contracting and how to address these.
- Understand potential liabilities and claims that can arise between buyers and suppliers when concluding contracts.
- Operate with enhanced knowledge of recent developments in the field of procurement law.
