About our CPD Courses

The Kenya School of Law (KSL) is Kenya's premier legal training institution, established in 1963 and ISO 9001:2015 certified. Through its Continuing Professional Development (CPD) programme, KSL offers a rich calendar of practical, high-impact courses designed for advocates, in-house counsel, policymakers, and public and private sector officers in areas of legal interest like procurement, finance, human resources, among other areas.

The 2026/2027 CPD Calendar covers 35 courses spanning July 2026 to June 2027, addressing emerging legal, governance, policy, sustainability, technology, and compliance issues relevant to Kenya and the region. In addition to calendar courses, KSL offers customer tailored courses at a client's request in areas like Monitoring of Regulatory Compliance, Legislative Drafting, Data Protection Law and Policy among others. The fee payable in such courses shall be agreed.

Courses are offered across multiple formats: 5-day residential programmes at partner venues (Naivasha, Mombasa, Machakos), short virtual webinars (3-hour online sessions), and select courses at KSL Karen campus. Fees range from KES 2,500 (virtual) to KES 190,000 (master class).

Why Attend KSL CPD?

01

Stay current with evolving legal and regulatory frameworks

02

Earn CPD points recognised by the Law Society of Kenya

03

Network with peers and senior legal practitioners

04

Practical, skills-based learning led by experienced facilitators

All courses are delivered by leading legal experts and practitioners. Participants receive certificates of attendance. Registration is done online at services.ksl.ac.ke. Early registration is encouraged as spaces are limited.

For group bookings and in-house training enquiries, contact the CPD Department at cpd@ksl.ac.ke or call +254 712923459.
