

TRAINING NOTICE

THE KENYA SCHOOL OF LAW

COURSE: LEGISLATIVE DRAFTING (3 LSK CPD Points)

DATE: The actual date be confirmed as soon as the Covid-19 pandemic is managed

VENUE: KENYA SCHOOL OF LAW, KAREN

ABOUT THE COURSE

The School wishes to receive expression of interest by those willing to attend training on Legislative Drafting, despite the fact that currently every resource is being directed to fighting the Covid-19 pandemic while keeping social distance. We are hopeful that we shall go back to normalcy soon to enable the training to proceed.

INTENDED PARTICIPANTS: This course is recommended for private and public legal practitioners, public officers involved in drafting laws and regulations for their organizations, policy-makers, staff in legal and policy departments, those interested in law reform, and those involved in drafting laws and regulations for County governments, law enforcement officers, NGOs, amongst others.

FACULTY: The Kenya School of Law has assembled a team of legislative drafting experts led by well-known legislative drafters.

CERTIFICATION: Certificates of participation will be issued at the end of the training.

THE GOAL OF TRAINING

The Constitution of Kenya 2010 established a new order pursuant to which society must respond by relooking at the existing laws and policies. Some laws are now obsolete; some require reform. Other laws need to be created, especially by County governments. This course seeks to build capacity in drafting of laws and regulations. It will address the question of designing public policy from which laws and regulations often flow. The course should be especially appealing to those involved in County government law-making processes, such as legal consultants, policy-makers, members of the County legislative assemblies, amongst others. Non-lawyers who are involved in policy-making and law reform will also benefit greatly. Lawyers who may get consultancies from County governments will benefit in this training as they will be empowered. Non-governmental organizations in the justice, human rights, rule of law, and governance segments of the economy will be highly enriched in order to advance public interest issues and critique laws for the benefit of the society at large.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course participant will be expected to:

1. Show demonstrable knowledge and appreciation of the subject of converting policy into legislation;
