PRESS RELEASE

LAW STUDENTS BENEFIT FROM THE KENYA SCHOOL OF LAW AND HIGHER EDUCATION LOANS BOARD PARTNERSHIP

Nairobi, 01 April 2021: The Kenya School of Law (KSL) has partnered with the Higher Education Loans Board (HELB) to set up the KSL Tuition Fund to offer loans to students pursuing the Advocates Training Program (ATP). This was after the School realized that many needy students are not able to complete the ATP course due to financial constraints occasioned by various factors.

Those who will qualify for the KSL Tuition loan are students admitted to the ATP at the School. The first beneficiaries of the loan will be new students for the 2021-2022 Financial year. Additionally, beneficiaries of the undergraduate HELB loans will not be prejudiced from benefiting from the KSL Tuition loan. The loan application portal opens from 1st April 2021 and closes on 15th May 2021. Applicants are advised to visit the HELB website www.helb.co.ke to make their application.

The ATP total tuition fee for a Kenyan Resident is Kenya Shillings one hundred and forty-Five Thousand only (Ksh.145,000/-). This includes the cost for the nine units, library fee and Pupillage supervision fee. The Kenya School of Law administers the course through two modes of study: the day-time classes and evening and weekend classes.
